WASHINGTON, Oct. 15, 1869.

THE YERGER CASE.

In the Supreme Court to-day the argument on the Yerger case was commenced by Attorney General Hoar. He argued at length that to bring a case within the appellate jurisdiction of this Court, in the sense requisite to enable it to award a writ of habeas corpus under the judiciary act, it is necessary that the commitment should appear to have been by a tribunal whose decisions are subject to revision by this Court.

This Court has never granted this writ, when the prisoner was not present at the time. He petitioned for it in confinement under an order of a Court whose proceedings can be revised by the Supreme Court. This Court cannot exercise any appellate control by appeal on a writ of error, or any other proceedings, over the military commission, by virtue of whose sentence the prisoner is imprisoned, nor has this Court power in any form, or by any procedure, to revive the proceedings of that Commission. In the case of the petitioner, the writ of habeas corpus to the Military Commander in Mississippi would be an exercise of original, not appellate, jurisdiction. The Military Commander holds the petitioner not under any order or decree of the Circuit Court, but by military authority, and could discharge the prisoner at his pleasure, notwithstanding the action of the Circuit Court. The habeas corpus issued with the ceretiorari as an adjunct to the appellate power, is only permitted where the custody of the prisoner is an essential part of the judgment or decree from which the decree is taken. The repeal by Congress of so much of act of February 5th. 1867, as granted appelate power to this court in cases of this nature, was intended, and should be construed, as taking away, not the whole appellate power in cases of habeas copus, but the appellate power in cases to which the act applied. Finally the acts of 1866, providing for a military Government in Mississippi, necessarily suspended the writ of habeas copus in that State, which it was within the clear constitutional authority of Congress to do.

Mr. J. M. Carlisle replied. He said that as a citizen he confessed there was no means of determining what Congress might have intended to do, but it was certainly difficult to tell when Congress had come into court or seized upon a cause sub judice, and strangled it, what might not have been the intention. But as a lawyer, it was easy to say what Congress really had done, by applying the ordinary rules of interpretation, and by such means, he found that Congress, by the act of 1868, repealed only the statute of 1867, which had given special jurisdiction. Before the existence of the fourteenth section of the Judiciary Act was unaffected by the repealing act of 1868, and it was under the provisions of that section that this proceeding was instituted, and not under the act of 1867, as contended by the Attorney General. He had heard no argument which had in the least shown that this Court was without jurisdiction under the judiciary act, and he would be inexcusablein long detaining the Court in insisting upon a jurisdiction which it had reiterated and reaffirmed time and time again.

Mr. Carlisle spoke briefly without notes, making the arguments of the Attorney General the basis of his remarks. The excitement at first caused by this proceeding seems to have greatly subsided, but few spectators having sat out the argument to-day. The venerable Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, was present until the argument closed, and appeared much interested.

Upon the conclusion of the argument the Court adjourned until Monday.

RECEPTION OF PRESIDENT GRANT AND PARTY IN WESTERN MARYLAND.

The President and party left Frederick this morning for the Antietam battle field. They traveled over the mountains in carriages. On the way Secretary Cox and Col. Vernon pointed out the several scenes of the conflict in which they were both engaged. The South Mountain being of peculiar interest to the President and General Sherman, who made many inquiries concerning the hostilities at that point. General Sherman, with several other gentlemen, hastily passed over the ground on foot, while the horses were resting, in order to have a better understanding of the events and movements of that day. Secretary Cox was a General in the Army of the Potomac, and assumed command of the 9th Corps after Reno was killed at South Mountain. At Middletown large crowds surrounded the open carriage of the President, greeting him with cheers, and not forgetting Gen. Sherman in their welcome. Miniature flags and handkerchiefs were waived by the ladies, and the bells of the village were rang. A reception equally enthusiastic was given at Boonsboro, and also at Keedysville. The party arrived at Antietam Cemetery at half past two o'clock. A large crowd of residents of the vicinity were in waiting. Judge Wiesell, of Hagerstown, received the President in a brief address, in which he spoke of the eminent service the President had rendered to the country, and of the graves of the dead who fell in defense of the Union, and concluded his speech by saying he had been instructed by the citizens of Hagerstown to invite the President and his party to visit that county seat. The President returned his thanks and said he had been highly gratified with his visit to Western Maryland, but as they had to take the cars at half past three o'clock, they would not have time to visit Hagerstown. General Sherman, Secretary Cox and Postmaster General Cresweli, were then severally introduced to the crowd. Cheers were then given for the President and Gen. Sherman. A number of ladies and children were crowded into the presence of these gentlemen, and engaged in hand shaking, which evidently afforded them much pleasure. The little children equally enjoyed the kisses of the President. After a survey of the grounds, the party re-entered their carriages on their return to Keedysville, where cheers spontaneously were given for the President and Gen. Sherman and Cox. A special train was in waiting at Keedysville, several miles from the cemetery, and this brought the party to Washington, where they arrived at nine o'clock to-night. The people of Fredeick and elsewhere in western Md. profusely extended their hospitallities, and the party express their pleasnre at the manner of their reception.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.

On motion of the Attorney-General Woodbridge, A. Field, of Massachusetts, was admitted to the bar. Mr. Field holds the position of Assistant Attorney-General.

CUSTOM RECEIPTS.

Custom receipts from October 1st to 9th, inclusive, were $3,679,706.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 15, 1869.

The Lake Shore Directors to-day elected Jos. H. Bonner Treasurer, vice Lockwood, resigned. The report is revived oi the issue of convertible bonds to take up the Wabash Stock, but nothing definite if known.

The Gold Exchange to-day elected a Board of Directors for the Clearing House. The Committee on Securities of the Stock Exchange have passed all North Carolina bonds as good for delivery except those issued to the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad Co., which may, however, be called up separately, on the free list.

The suspension is announced of Lindsay, Chittick & Co., importers, in consequence of having been com elled to pay higher rates for the gold they needed than could be afforded. Their liabilities are not large, and the suspension it is hoped will be only temporary.

The announcement is made that the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, to-day, voted to increase their share of capital 15 per cent.

The Congressional Committee on the cause and remedies for the depression of American currency, held its second session to-day, and heard the statements and suggestions of A. C. Stimers, naval engineer, C. F. Rowland, builder of the first Monitor, the Dictator, Puritan, and other iron clads, and a number of others.

The committee hold another meeting in the morning, and then proceed to Boston, where they will hold a session on Monday.

The session in Philadelphia is postponed till the week before the meeting of Congress, and then the ship owners of Baltimore and Wilmington will have a hearing.

PHILADELPHIA.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, 15.—George Deiss, clerk in the Prothonotaries Common Please office, was arrested last nsght by Leiut. Killacky, of the Mayors police, without a warrant, and locked him up in a cell where he was kept all night. While in custody, the key of his office was taken from him, and the police entered the office, which this morning bore evidence of having been ransacked. Deiss was released this forenoon, when he made complaint before Allison, who had Killacky arrested and held him in $5,000 bail to answer the charge. He was reprimanded by the Judge in the severest terms. His only excuse was that he arrested Deiss as a suspicious character.

Mr. Simpson, President of the Board of Return Judges, is not so seriously injured as at first reported. He is about to day.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The Vermont Legislature orgaulzed to-day. G. W. Grandey was elected speaker of the House.

—Governor Hoffman, of New York, has fixed the 18th of November as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

—Catharine Luri, wife of a farmer in Storrs township, Hamilton county, Ohio, committed suicide by hanging yesterday noon. Cause, religious insanity.

—Admiral Farragut was much easier yesterday evening, and renewed hopes of his recovery are entertained. His strong will sustains him in his severe sickness, but his bodily strength is very small.

—In the United States District Court at Albany, N. Y., last evening, the jury in the case of Benjamin Payne, tobacconists, charged with making fraudulent returns to the Government, rendered a verdict of guilty.

—It is stated that General Canby has prepared a report on the alleged frauds in the Virginia election, which will show that it was an extremely fair election, much fairer, indeed, than is usual at elections in the Northern States.

—Thursday, at Cincinnati, Edward H. Hopkins attempted suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear. He was taken to the hospital and will probably die. Under Mayor Faran he was some years ago Chief of Police. He alleges domestic trouble as the cause.

—In a present case in the United States District Court of Baltimore, which has been to the Supreme Court, it was shown that three National Banks of Baltimore have been lending as high as eighty per cent. of their capital for speculative purposes.

—Private letters from Havana, report that on the 9th inst., a battle was fought near Guaiamaro, between the Spanish forces under Valmaseda, and two divisions of insurgents under Jourdan and Rueseda, which, after seven hours of severe fighting, resulted in the defeat of the Spaniards. The losses on both sides are very heavy. The Spanish papers are silent in regard to this.

—The Memphis Avalanche's Little Rock special says: The Liberal Republican State Convention adjourned last evening, after a most harmonious session. The platform adopted is extremely liberal and conservative, endorsing universal suffrage, and a general reform in the present State Government, the action to be referred to the people for endorsement.

FRANCE.

LONDON, October 15.—The Times today, commenting on the situation of France, says the jealous and inconsistent policy which would allow and forbid public meetings at the same time, exceeds our comprehension. To permit citizens to assemble and leave it to the police to stop discussion, is adding insult to injury. Tee profession of confidence made by the Government is denied by its acts. If anything is likely to be fatal to France, and to the dynasty of its ruler, it is the per petual distrust of the capabilities of the nation for self-control, and the never-ending dallying with the introduction of institutions to invest the people with responsibilities for their own deeds, which would interest the lovers of freedom in the cause of order, and give public opinion that sound and wholesome ascendancy which would drive ribaldry and license from the field. France has at the present moment no government. The Emperor's message to the Corps Legislatif placed him between the old imperialism which the Emperor declared out of date and exploded, and the new constitutional rule, which he has announced, but is unable or unwilling to define. In the interval the people give the Emperor's message too broad an interpretation, while he is confident as if the words had never been spoken—as if no change had occurred, and none intended—as if present rule were now and might be expected to be forever what it has been in the worst time.

SPAIN.

MADRID, October 15.—Rumors are now abroad that Emperor Napoleon intends to establish a Corps of Observation on the frontier, and causes much excitement. During a debate in the Cortes yeaterday, on the resolution thanking the Spanish authority in Cuba, Gen. Prim declared that the Home Government only wanted a favorable result of the conflict there to accord all the reforms and liberties required by the colony.

Negotiations with the rebels at Valencia are progressing. A brief delay has been granted, and a certain time fixed within which they may submit and secure full pardon. But should they hold out after the time has expired, their lives will be forfeited.

Pruneda has been arrested on a charge of engaging in the conspiracy to provoke insurrections in Saragossa.

It is reported that the insurgent leaders Paul and Saloecha have fired the city of Cartagena.

MADRID, October 15—Evening—The special committee appointed by the Cortes to investigate the conduct of the Republican Deputies, in their report recommend the arrest of Gen. Perria by the Government for his seditious action at Tarragon.

Three republican papers published in Madrid, have been suppressed and two others are under prosecution. Several citizens, prominent in the republican party, have been arrested here.

A petition from the Bishops praying that the insurgents of Valencia may be allowed to capitulate, has been refused.

More fighting is reported in Catalonia and Grenada. The Government troops have been victorious. It is calculated there are 20,000 armed insurgents in the field.

EGYPT.

ALEXANDRIA, October 15.—The waters of the Nile are subsiding, and there is no longer any apprenensions of serious damage to the cotton crop. The loss by the flood will not exceed in the aggregate five hundred bales.

A dam on the Suez canal gave away, but did no great harm to the works though a large quantity of material was destroyed. It is feared the canal must be deepened before it can be of any practical use.

ROME.

ROME, October 15.—The Civilita Cattolica says the Bishops have been summoned to the Council, not to deliberate on and decide questions by the vote of the majority, but to ratify decisions already resolved upon by the sovereign and infallible Pontiff.

HAVRE, October 15.—The steamship Paraguay, from New York, arrived today.

HUNGARY.

PESTH, October 15.—The Emperor Francis Joseph desires to see the establishment of Cis Leithanan Antonomy perfected before he leaves on his journey to the East, a transaction the Minister is forming, and the Bakeman notables offer their good offices to bring about the desired result.

PORTUGAL.

LISBON, October 15.—It is said that a measure providing for the reduction of the army will be proposed at the next session of Cortes.

LOUISVILLE.

National Commercial Convention—Fourth Day Proceedings.

LOUISVILLE October 15.—The Convention met at ten o'clock this morning. The first report presented to the Convention was that which provides for the improvement of the Mississippi river and its tributaries. A memorial to be presented to Congress, and a resolution in favor of the improvement of said river, were read and unanimously adopted.

The Committee on Agriculture made their report. One resolution requests that Congress repeal the law in regard to the land and tax on the Southern States. The report was adopted.

The report of the Committee on a Continuous Water Line from the Atlantic Ocean to the Mississippi River was read, and the resolutions embodied thereon were separately read. A copy of the resolutions will be forwarded to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, with the request that they be laid before their respective Houses.

The report of the Committee on Taxation which provides for simplifying, equalizing and reducing taxation was also adopted.

The Commercial Convention met at 9:30 this morning, President Fillmore in the chair. After some preliminary matters, the Convention proceeded to call for the reports of the different committees. The most of these were so very voluminous that it would require several days to transmit them by telegraph, and it is next to impossible to give a general idea of them, owing to the great confusion which existed at times in the Convention.

Mr. O. Stanard, of St. Louis, chairman of the Committee on River Navigation, Canals and other improvements, submitted a lengthy and very able report.

In connection with the report, Mr. Stanard read a letter from J. N. Macomb, Colonel of Engineers and Superintendent of the U. S. snag boat of the western river improvements, in regard to his operations, which threws some light upon the subject of river improvements. After some slight objections, which were not sustained, the report of the committee was adopted.

The order of the day was postponed to hear the reports of the standing committees. The Committee on Agriculture submitted their report, which was adopted. The Committee believes that the true policy of the Government is a general and prompt relief from unequal taxation imposed upon the cotton growing sections, and urges Congress to repeal the act imposing land tax upon the Southern States. They believe the liberal policy of the Government towards agriculture is desirable.

Mr. Thomas Munce, of Iowa, Chairman of the Committee on Continuous Water Line communication between the Mississippi river and Atlantic ocean, submitted a preamble and resolutions which, with the omission of one objectionable paragraph, was adopted. The report recommends, among many other things, the immediate extension of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal from Cumberland, Md., to Brownsville, Pa.

General C. B. Fisk presented a report upon the removal of obstructions from the mouth of Mississippi, which was unanimously adopted. The following resolution is a part of the report.

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States be most respectfully memorialized to increase the forces already employed, or if need be, to vary the same so as to effect in the most expedition manner possible, the op ning of both channels at the mouth of the Mississippi river to a depth that shall pass vessels of twenty feet draught at all times through these channels.

Mr. Hilliard, Chairman of the Committee on Taxation, read the report of the Committee. They recognize the necessity of taxation for the support of the Government, and favor adherence to obligations already entered into. The existing mode of taxation is complex, extravagant and oppressive. It should be simplified and the revenue derived from a few sources, as licenses, tobacco, liquors, distilled spirits, land sales, fines and forfeitures. Statistics are given to show what can be collected from these sources.

T. P. Lawrence, of Illnois, Chairman of Committee on Manufacturing and Mining, read a report. They said that not having any reliable statistics to be guided by they cannot get a full report of the products of the several sections. A portion of the majority report of the Committee on Pacific Railroad was read by the Chairman, Mr. Lewis, of Alabama, when he was interupted by a discussion in reference to certain amendments, and as to whether a minority report which had been proposed should be read.

Gen. Sprague, of New York, spoke at considerable length in favor of the Southern Pacific Railroad. He said, in the course of his remarks, "that this is the railroad which must be built to unite our people. (Applause) It will be a bond that will bind the American people together with silken and golden bands, which will unite us in kindness and love". The report of the committee is full, voluminous and comprehensive—full of argument, statistics and historical facts. The further reading of the report, after the interruption, was dispensed with.

The minority report of the Committee was read by Mr. W. S. McManus, of Pennsylvania. This report recommended the construction of a railroad commencing in the vicinity of Cairo and running westward on the thirty-fifth parallel latitude. The majority report favored the thirty second parallel line.

Then followed a lengthy and able discussion in reference to the advantages of one line over the ether. At last a vote was taken upon the motion to adopt the minority report as a substitute for the majority report. Rejected.

The announcement of the result of the vote was followed by long and enthusiastic applause, and it was some time before good order was restored. The vote was at length reached upon the adoption of the majority report, which was adopted, and this was greeted with thundering applause. The Committee on Railroads generally submitted their report. This report recommended the building of railroads leading from various parts of the West to the various Gulf ports as the proper outlet for western agricultural products. It approves heartily the policy adopted by many southern railroad companies in affording cheap transportation to persons seeking homes in the Southern States and favors the connection by sail of the waters of the Pacific ocean and the lakes by the northern Pacific route. The report was adopted.

Mr. Lamb, of Virginia, Chairman of the Committee on Direct Trade, submitted his report, which was discussed at length and was finally adopted, three or four voices dissenting. Gen. Weldbridge introduced the following resolution, which was cordially received and passed unanimously:

Resolved, That this Convention heartily reciprocates the sentiment of cordiality expressed by the President of the United States for the success of the objects contemplated by this Convention, as conveyed by his letter to this body, and we trust its deliberations will result in promoting brotherhood and harmony between all citizens of the United States.

Cincinnati was selected as the place, and the first Tuesday in October, 1870, as the time of holding the next Convention. A motion that the Convention adjourn sine die at 11 o'clock A. M., to-morrow, Saturday, prevailed.

THE COURTS.

United States Circuit Court.—Judge McCandless.

FRIDAY, October 15.—In the case of George S. Head vs. Collins & McClean, a bill in equity, argued in the District Court of the United States, Judge McCandless delivered the following opinion:

"As the prayer and purpose of the bill is simply to restrain the respondents from proceeding with their executions, pending the proceedings in bankruptcy, the question as to priority of lien is prematurely raised.

"It is the policy of the law, that the assets of the bankrupt should be administered by one jurisdiction, and as we have decided in Campbell's case, that all liens remain intact, the rights of the respondents, whatever they are, will properly arise and be determined at the date of distribution.

The injunction is continued until further order."

In the case of E. A. L. Roberts vs. George West and others, in which bills were filed, as reported yesterday, the arguments of counsel were heard, after which preliminary injunctions were granted against George West, A. T. Ballentine et al, and Fred. Crocker. In the case against Elias Beach, the arguments were not concluded.

Quarter Session—Judge Mellon.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Republicans	61
Democrats	39
Republican majority	22

Last year the Republicans had eighteen members in the Senate, a majority of three. This year the majority is four, a gain of one.

In the House the Republicans had sixty-two members last year; this year they have sixty-one, a loss of one in the Franklin district and two in the Juniata district, owing to an unfortunate division; but as the Republicans gain two members in Philadelphia, the actual Republican loss is but one. The majority on joint ballot is the same as last year.

THE press of Europe is so much in the hands of Protestants or of "philosophers," that the comments and even the information pertaining to the Ecumenical Council have to be taken warily. The Catholic papers are worse, for they only give and say what is ordered from Rome. The liberal Catholics of Germany are averse to the Council, and the Catholic sovereigns look coldly or suspiciously at all that is being done. The gathering of 900 Cardinals, Patriarchs and Archbishops, Bishops and mitred Abbots will be an imposing sight, but there are many able men who, in the interests of Catholicism, deprecate the proceedings and believe the results will be hurtful. The States, even the most Catholic, are more or less hostile beforehand.

A SACRILIGIOUS thief entered the church of the Holy Trinity, at New Orleans, last week, under pretext of worshipping, and when alone in the building he lost no time in breaking open the sacristy and helping himself to the sacred vessels. He succeeded in carrying off three chalices, valued respectively at $100, $70 and $40, a large silver dish valued at 100, and three altar cloths. The thief was apparently so deeply engaged in prayer, when seen in the church immediately before the robbery, that he concealed both face and head in his hands, rendering it a difficult matter to identify him.

A PARTY under Lieut. Wheeler, sent to explore the great desert county of Colorado and south of White Pines, reports its arrival, after severe trouble, at Muddy river, fifty miles south of the mouth of the Rio Virgin. The party will return by the most westerly line and reach White Pine the 1st of November.

FOURTEEN months ago, it is reported, Dr. Livingstone was seen at Lake Tauganyika, by an Arab. The report is doubtless a hoax, for Arabs weren't in fashion fourteen months ago! Makers of Livingstone items will do well to pay more attention to the probabilities.

THE editor of the Union City (Mich.) Register recently conversed with Mrs. Phebe Myers, aged 103 years. She is exceedingly active for one so old, is the mother of thirteen children, is able to walk alone, and knits her own stockings.

THERE is a disease called inland yellow fever, or "Addson fever," prevailing in the vicinity of Columbus, Miss., that is quite fatal. It has all, or nearly all, the characteristics of the Gulf yellow fever, terminating with black vomit.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

ALMOST A GHOST STORY—A REAL INCIDENT.

BY GRACE GREENWOOD.

On a Christmas night, some fifty or sixty years ago, there were gathered about the wide fireplace of a large New England kitchen, a happy family circle, consisting of a well-to-do farmer, who was eke a magistrate—known far and wide as "Squire Percival"—his comely wife, two fair daughters, a niece, and last, but not least, a son, just home from Yale for the holidays.

The night without was seasonably cold, and brilliant with moonlight and starlight. The large stone farm-house stood on the brow of a hill behind a protecting line of tall pine trees—the only green in the wide landscape. The steep hillside and wide valley beneath were heavily blanketed with snow.

The early part of the evening had passed merrily with games, jests and song. But for an hour or two the conversation had taken a drift into the realm of the supernatural. One ghost had succeeded another till, as the "witching time of night" approached, and the fire burned low, the circle instinctively drew closer together, with thrills and shudders of strange spiritual dread, which is yet akin to the keenest pleasure—an awesome joy, an exquisite terror. The solemn soughing of winds among the pines, heard in the pauses of ghostly recitals, added its wondrous, weird effect to the theme.

Just as young John Percival had concluded a wild German legend, which he declared "splendid stuff for dreams," the outside door was heard to open suddenly. All looked around more or less fearfully, to see standing on the threshold the slight form of a fair young woman, clad all in white, and looking strangely pure, and cold, and luminous, like incarnated moonlight.

"With the glide of a spirit" she came forward. Her feet were quite bare, and her arms were drooping wearily. Masses of fair hair fell over her shoulders, but her eyes were dark and fixed with a melancholy stare. Her lips were slightly parted and almost colorless. She came into the circle about the hearth and there paused, standing utterly motionless—a beautiful, appalling figure.

For a moment all the startled group remained as silent as that strange visitor—then one young girl caught her breath in a hysterical scream, which was instantly answered by a cry from the pale lips of "the woman in white," into whose blank eyes rushed a wild, keen light. She gazed about her in terror and bewilderment, then glanced down upon herself, and sank cowering upon the floor, covering her face with her hands, and giving way to childish paroxysms of weeping.

The farmer's wife, a woman of rare sense and presence of mind, at once divined the truth.

"She is a sleep-walker!" she said. She must be half dead with the cold. Girls, bring some wrappings!"

Immediately all was bustle. The farmer and his son discreetly vanished from the scene, and the kind mother, daughters and niece devoted themselves to their bewildered charge, who still wept and sobbed under their kind ministrations, but declared that she felt no cold and no pain, though her delicate feet were actually bleeding from her long walk up the icy hillside and over the crusted snow.

After having been tenderly put to bed, however, she became sufficiently composed to reply to the few questions which had been put to her. She said she was Lucy Ellett, the niece of the village physician; that she had lately been taken from school, on account of nervousness, and sent to him for medical treatment but that homesickness and loneliness had made her worse. She had occasionally walked in her sleep before, but only about the house and grounds at home, and on summer moonlight nights. "I think the moon bewitches me," she said, smiling through her tears. That night she had, before going to bed, looked across the little valley to the pleasant house on the hill, watched the cheerful Christmas lights gleaming through the pine trees, and longed to be one of the happy party there, though she was a stranger to all.

She had cried herself to sleep, she said, and that was all she knew of her mysterious midnight tramp over snow and stones and ice. Not a memory, not a thought could she recall till the moment when she found herself standing on that hearth, in her night dress with so many wondering eyes fixed upon her.

"O, dear! what do you think of me? What can you think of me now?" she moaned.

"Never mind what we think of you, my poor child, said the good motherly Mrs. Percival, "we love you already, so just drink this nice ginger tea and go to sleep."

The "poor child" got a little natural sleep, and in the morning appeared somewhat less ghostly than the apparition of Christmas night. But she was still very pale, with a playfully shy, grieved look. She was suffering less than was expected from the exposure, but more from the nervous shock of the night before, and by the advice of her uncle, who had been summoned, consented to remain with her new friends for a few days.

Young John Percival was hospitably kind to the invalid guest, not seeming to perceive that she shrank from his attentions in a sensitive, disquieted way. Yet when his eye was not on her, she was observed to study his face with a peculiar inquiring expression. She could not remember having seen that face at the fearful moment of her awakening, and she hoped he had not been a witness of that walking trance, which she regarded with absolute horror.

Finally, on the last day of her visit, finding herself alone with him for a moment, under a desperate impulse, she asked: "Did you, too, see me that night, Mr. Percival?"

He was touched by the tremble in the voice and the wistful look in the dark eyes; but he answered honestly: "I cannot deny that I did see you."

"O sir! what must you have thought?"

"Thought?—why I thought if ghosts would always come in such shapes, I would never fear them more."

The shy smile and rosy blush that his playful answer called forth seemed first to reveal to the young collegian the pale, sad vission of the night as a lovely walking flesh and blood reality.

I never heard of Lucy Ellett "revisiting the glimpses of the moon" as a somnambulist after this, but I heard that on another Christmas night she stood on the hearth of the old farmhouse, dressed all in white, in the midst of the same family circle, and she gazed about her, and said, "I am afraid I am walking in my sleep again," and she then put up her hands in a pretty, deprecating way, and added: "But if I am John, don't wake me!"

A GENTILE of Salt Lake City, who married a Mormon wife, while expressing a contempt for polygamy, announced his dislike of the "blood atonement," which he thus describes: "Well, these fellows get a grudge against a man, and they make out he's done something he can't atone for except with blood, and then some of the elders have a revelation that the man's got to get out of the way, and then go for him. 'Taint no use, then. These revelations do the business for him. Man's found dead, throat cut, or something of that sort, and that's the last of it. Nobody knows anything about it, and if you catch 'em at it 'taint no use—they all stand by each other."

IF ever a bridegroom thoroughly deserved his bride, Mr. Irvin D. Booth, of Elmira, is that man. He was to have been united on Tuesday last to the object of his idolatry, but a cruel freshet came and swept away his means of communication. Nothing daunted, however, he engaged a hand-car, and made the best progress he could, until that, too, failed him, when Shank's mare was brought into requisition, and, after jumping more ditches, scrambling over more fences, pursued by indignant watch dogs, and enduring more hardships than even John Van Buren did in getting back into the Democratic party subsequent to his backsliding in 1848, this Leander reached his Hero at Middletown on Thursday morning, and was then and there triumphantly united to her in the holy bonds of wedlock.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

THE most valuable discovery made at the ancient wharf of the Emporium, where, buried beneath the accumulated rubbish of more than a thousand years, is an inexhaustible stock of blocks of marble of the most costly and rare qualities. The blocks already taken out, some of which are of exceeding beauty, are valued at over $400,000; and, as the deposit of these treasures is said to extend down the left bank of the Tiber, from the Aventine to the Church of St. Paul beyond the walls, it is probable that his Holiness has there a store of almost boundless wealth. Among the masses got out recently were a great block of rose colored Oriental alabaster, another of Povonazetto, several of Gialloantico, and fifteen pieces of African marble, of which only two had been known in Rome. Thirteen pieces of the precious myrrhae, which the ancient Romans prized above all other stones, have also been discovered.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated: Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore improper, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 3 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, a

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October, 15, 1869.

The oil market opened up strong and considerably excited, and continued to tend upward until a notice was received from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, announcing that on and after Monday next, freights would be advanced 55 cents per bbl. This had a tendency to weaken and unsettle the market, temporarialy it may be, and there will doubtless be an unusually heavy demand for cars to-day. The effect of this advance in freights will be to advance the price of refined or lower the price of crude, perhaps, both. Although the advance in freights was rather sudden, it was not altogether unexpected, as freights are usually put up during the fall and winter; and while we cannot speak advisedly, it is probableble that other roads have made a corrosponding advance.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was rather excited and sensitive to-day; the feeling in the forenoon was reported stronger than it was in the afternoon when there appeared to be a stronger inclination to sell, though, prices, underwent no material change. Sale 2,000 seller all year at 14¾; 1,000 seller November at 15; 1,000 seller until December 15th at 15; and 1,000 buyer all 1869 at 15½.

REFINED.

The market was rather quiet in the afternoon, and some parties reported that prices were off about a ¼ compared with the early part of the day—so far as we could learn, however, there were no sales made at a reduction. Sales of twe "lines" of 1,000 each October to December at 33; 500 each November and December at 33; 1,000 buyer all 1869 at 33½, and—last evening—500 each October to December at 32¾; and 500 each November and December at 32¾.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 15, 1869.

The metal market continues firm and fairly active, with a demand fully up to the supply, especially for mill, irons, and prices are fully sustained—som favorite brands, which are in very light supply, may be quoted 50 cents per ton higher. It is stated that a considerable part of the produce of the western furnaces is not being shipped direct to Wheeling, Zanesville, Newark, Cincinnati and Cleveland; and it is also said that most of the mills in the latter places some of which have been idle for a year and even more, have or will shortly resume operations. There is not much doing in Foundry Irons, most of the foundry men being pretty well stocked, and, besides they generally restrict their purchases to small lots. As noted in our last report, the mills here are all in full blast, having as many orders as they can fill, and the recent advance in bar iron and nails is strictly adhered to. Following is a report of the sales:

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose a few inches yesterday, and was still swelling slowly last evening with 36 inches in the channel by the marks. Weather cloudy and cool, mercury down to 45, on the Suspension Bridge.

No arrivals or departures, and navigation, for the time being, may be considered suspended.

The Wheeling packet, New State, was reported aground at Glass House yesterday.

The Messenger continues to receive for New Orleans, as is also the Glendale for St. Louis. Of course, these boats will not venture out until there is more water.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new J. N. McCullough, and she is beginning to assume a more formidable appearance.

The R. C. Gray is loading at Cincinnati for Memphis.

—The Mary Davage arrived al New Orleans on Wednesday.

—The Mollie Ebert left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The Mollie Able is to be sold at auction, at St. Louis, on Wednesday next.

—The Wauanita left Cincinnati for Memphis on Wednesday with aboat 450 tons on boat and barge.

—Capt. Tom Poe continues to run the Nick Wall between St. Louis and Lexington. The Nick, it is said, is very fast.

—The St. Louis papers announce that the Richmond will run regularly from that port to New Orleans, making fourteen day trips.

—Capts. Dan and Frank Mairatta have named their boat, Henry A. Jones. She will soon be completed, and as previously noticed, she is intended for Trinity river, Texas.

—We notice that the Major Anderson is advertised in the Cincinnati papers for Pittsburgh, whereas she does not go above Wheeling.

—A St. Louis telegram, under date of Wednesday, says: Capt. B. F. Hutchinson, of this city, met with a most distressing and serious accident last evening, when about three and a half miles from the city, on his way home. While descending a rather steep hill, his buggy was run down by a team and wagon loaded with lumber. The Captain was thrown to the ground and knocked senseless. Three of his ribs and collarbone were broken and his face much disfigured. It is feared that he also received serious internal injuries.

WATT, Republican, is certainly elected to the State Senate, from the First District of Philadelphia. This gives us a Republican majority of five in that body.

THREE of our thriving interior cities, Lancaster, Scranton and Williamsport, elected Republican Mayors, Tuesday, for the first time in their municipal history. Altoona, always Democratic, now chooses a Republican majority for her Council.

THE Registry Law diminished the Democratic vote in the Fourth ward of Philadelphia from 4,466 for Seymour to 2,353 for Packer. The Republicans varied only two hundred, but that of the opposition more than two thousand.

OUR trade statistics for July estimate the exports at $28,296,177. Over $8,000,000 thereof were in the precious metals, $6,000,000 in wheat, over $3,500,000 in petroleum and $4,000,000 in tobacco. The imports for this month were valued $36,604,886, of which forty-three per cent. was warehoused as not for immediate consumption. Highest in the list, in value, stands brown sugar, $5,000,000, silk and silk goods, $2,338,645, and woolen dress goods. $2,011,421.

THE Philadelphia Age laments that the old Democratic flag has gone down in the battle; that its gallant bark has been damaged upon a rock; that a "thraldom now presses the Democracy to the dust;" and that "out of the nettle danger, shall yet be plucked the flower of safety." The Age is evidently stunned and bewildered by last Tuesday's concussion; its confusion of military, maritime and botanical figures of speech is not to be otherwise accounted for.

FOLLOWING are the footings of the official votes for Governor, Supreme Judge and Commissioner in this county:

Governor—Geary		17,836
	Packer	13,236
	Rep. maj.	4,600
Supreme Judge—Williams		18,999
	Pershing	12,444
	Rep. maj.	6,555
Co. Com'r—Bostwick		9,434
	Dickey	10,139
	McGee	11 657
McGee's maj. over Dickey		1,518

BEATEN before the people, at Tuesday's polls, the opposition are making angry flourishes with their exploded guns as Chairman COVODE of our State Committee. This excellent politician has run the campaign so successfully, that our friends on the other side insist upon it that he is also running the official canvass of the votes. Well, Mr COVODE is about as sure death on the Democracy at was that old French physician on fits. If he undertakes to count in his own candidate, we are profoundly convinced that he will carry his point. He makes it his business to complete whatever job he may turn his hand to. Our neighbor of the Post has struck the Democratic Key-note of alarm! Beware of COVODE! Eternal vigilance, &c.

THE Commonwealth requires, and is likely to obtain, with little or no delay, a new Attorney General. The Governor has the power of appointment as well as of removal. We have no knowledge of his intentions in the premises. There may be a multitude of candidates for an appointment which, faithfully filled, reflects the highest honor upon its recipient. Officially, the Attorney General stands at the head of a learned and most influential profession, the bar of this Commonwealth. Personally, he should be of spotless character, and this should adorn the most conspicuous professional abilities. The people cannot be satisfied with either of these as the sole qualification of their principal law-officer.

Were we to express what we believe to be the general sentiment of the bar, outside, perhaps, of Philadelphia, we should venture to suggest the name of W. W. KETCHUM, of Luzerne, for the consideration of the Executive. His public life, like his private character, has been without a stain, while his professional attainments amply fit him for the important post of legal adviser to the State Government.

Whomever the Governor may appoint, we beg his remembrance of and respect for the universal public distaste for any selection from the present ring.

THE ballot box here has been tampered with, in at least one instance!

We have indubitable proof that in one election district, where Geary had a majority, on Wednesday night, after the ballot-box was sealed up, it was broken open, papers removed, and others substituted!

This is no mere assertion. If we felt so disposed we could name the precinct, the officers who broke open the ballot-box in defiance of law, and the names of the witnesses.—Post, 15th.

This is a very specific allegation, of an offence which, by the 93rd and 97th Sections of the Election Law, is upon conviction to be visited with sharp penalties. We invite the attention of the law-officers of the county to this statement. It is perhaps in vain to ask the Editor of the Post, who claims to have this positive "indubitable proof" of a breach of the law committed, as alleged, for the purpose of damaging the party to which he adheres, —to prove his sincerity by making, as it is his privilege to do, an information before a magistrate which would ensure a thorough investigation of the facts. But will he do it? Let him proceed, and upon proof of his good faith in the premises, we pledge to him our own co-operation in the interests of public justice.

WE UNDERSTAND that the highest law-officer of the Commonwealth, Mr. Attorney General Brewster, has not been seen in his office at the State capital since last June. He has a so-called "Assistant" whose average attendance at his post is about one day in two weeks. In this line, his "assistance" is faithfully after the example of his official superior. Yet a mere neglect of official duties might be pardoned, when we cannot overlook a deliberate defiance of every official obligation. It is the affair of the Executive and of the people, with their Attorney General now, that the latter is at this moment understood to be exhausting his professional abilities in a private litigation, to secure a result which—as no one knows better than he—would deprive the State Treasury of half a million of dollars, its just dues. It is the immediate question whether it be compatible with official proprieties, that the principal law-officer of the State shall be permitted to use his official prerogatives for the promotion of that especial result. Decidedly, the Commonwealth should dispense with such official services. The Governor should relieve him from public duties forthwith. Things would be coming to a pretty pass, when the State government is compelled to employ outside counsel, to resist the professional tactics of its own Attorney General. This is an affair quite too scandalous to the State to be countenanced for one day. The case is with Governor GEARY; we are sure that he is equal to the situation. We have done our own duty in the premises, and propose to do the same for the future.

THE STATE RESULT.

We have received official returns from thirty-eight counties of the State. Twenty-two in the aggregate show PACKER's majorities to be 24,141 against 23,873 awarded BOYLE in 1868, a net gain in same districts of 268. Sixteen counties show 26,365 in majorities for GEARY against 29,246 for HARTRANFT in 1868—a net loss of 2,881. Twenty-eight counties yet remain to be officially heard from, which in all probrbility will fix GEARY's majority between three thousand and thirty-four hundred.

Williams majority will be much larger.

PHILADELPHIA.

Two years ago, when DAVID PAUL BROWN and other Republicans in Philadelphia, bolted WILLIAMS and elected Sharswood, the feeling of bitterness, in this county, against the Republicans of Philadelphia, was very intense. Hundreds of ardent men, here, reflecting that the vote of these Philadelphia Republi- would have saved WILLIAMS, registered a vow that they would never again vote for a Philadelphian. The result of Tuesday last, however, has wiped that all out. Philadelphia has saved us the State,—Legislature, Governor and Judge; whilst Allegheny is forever estopped from further complaint. The mistake of 1866 has been rectified, and the honor of the campaign of 1868 belongs to the Republicans of Philadelphia.

THE DIFFERENCE.

The Philadelphia Bulletin remarks, with an allusion to the support of Judge Williams in that city two years since, that "Philadelphia has now done much better than any of the Republican strongholds of the interior; so much better, especially, than Allegheny that we have a right to taunt that county for its want of fidelity to the party." That taunt would be equally ungenerous and unmerited. The Allegheny Republicans have had more stubborn difficulties to encounter at the polls than Philadelphia, thanks to the faithful execution of the Registry-Law, has had any experience of this year. The contest was there a straight and square pull, by her united Republican forces against an opposition which was demoralized by schisms and disheartened by the effectual exclusion of their customary contrivances to swamp the polls. Here, our opponents were united and hopeful themselves, and reinforced by the operation of local elements most detrimental to our partizan organization. We shall not descend into particulars on this head; it is enough to observe that we have done quite as well for the Republican ticket as we had good reason to expect. Comparisons are always invidious—two years ago as well as to-day. We have only to add that Philadelphia has most honorably inaugurated and vindicated those new Republican safeguards, around the integrity of the ballot of which she stood in such flagrant need, while the Republicans of Allegheny may comprehend the present proofs, fresh and convincing if not satisfactory, that without union there is no strength even in numbers, but, on the contrary, a serious peril from over confidence in that strength and in the tenacity of political attachments.

IGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

A lady named Wittenmeyer, of the Ladies' Christian Union, Philadelphia, at the Preachers' Meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Cincinnati, delivered an address, in which she assumed that two-thirds, if not three-fourths, of the membership of the Church are women; there has been a failure to employ these women in Christian work; women are willing to work, or by proper means can be developed as workers, the ministers and men of the Church can not do the work of visiting the poor so well as the women; in fine, the key to the solution of the question, "How shall we reach the masses?" is in the hands of the women.

A prominent Presbyterian minister in Western New York, according to the Evangelist, has in his church what he calls the Children's Sabbath. That is, on the morning of the Sabbath after the Communion, he preaches upon infant baptism, the duty of parents to their baptized children, the promises to those who fulfill these duties, and similar topics. At this time children are brought forward for baptism. Forty-two children were baptized on two occasions. And what is especially interesting in this, was the fact that most of them are the children of the converts of a recent marvellous revival in that Church.

Rev. L. W. Harker, a Presbyterian minister, recently, while preaching to his people at Troy, Indiana, with unusual fervor, fell back into a seat and asked for air. He was quickly carried out of the house, and soon after fell asleep in Jesus. While being carried through the congregation he exclaimed, "O my people! my people! O sinners, repent and come to Jesus!"

Isaac Rich, Esq., a princely merchant belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church, offers one hundred thousand dollars for the Boston Theological (Methodist) Seminary, provided another hundred thousand is raised. The agents have just sent out an agent to raise the requisits amount.

President Grant and wife are expected to be present at the Sunday school jubilee to be held at Philadelphia at an early day, in aid of the Methodist Old People's Home.

A correspondent of the Index says that out of eight hundred and forty-seven Baptist churches in Georgia, only twenty-eight have preaching every Sunday.

It is said the Presbytery of New York contributes to the Board of Foreign Missions (O. S.) one-third as much as all the other churches in the country.

The forty second anniversary of the Pennsylvania Baptist General Assocation will be held at Reading, Pa., on Monday October 19th. The annual sermon will be preached by Rev. A. M. Calkins, of Abington, or Rev. G. W. Anderson, of Philadelphia.

The Pittsburgh Episcopal Diocese has 3,012 communicants, 47 clergymen and 49 parishes. The contributions for parochial purposes for the year were $77,978, and for benovlent objects, $20,437.

The Advance in speaking of the church on Madison avenue and Forty-second street, New York, says its germ was a little Sunday school of seven children, started five years ago. It has now he finest of locations, a neat church, a modest chapel and Sunday school room, a membership of some hundred and fifty, and supports five mission schools. The congregation raised last year for church expenses and missionary purposes eighty-nine thousand dollars. Its pastor and founder is Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr.

The Evangelical Messenger thinks the custom of ministers acknowledging a donation in a paper is improper as it is a matter of local interest, and should simply be acknowledged from the pulpit, or in some other way instead of trumpeting it to the world.

The Fourth Associate Reformed church, New York, having united with the Old School Presbyterian church, some months ago, abandoned Rouse's version of the Psalms and adopted the hymnial recommended by the Old School Assembly. On making the change the congregation sang as its first hymn, the one beginning, "Welcome, sweet day of rest."

Archbishop McClosky, according to a letter from Rome to a London journal, has hired a carriage and span at 1,200 francs a month, to carry him about in the Eternal City.

MINOR TOPICS.

BEAUTY AND TASTE are not always considered when they should be. If a man allows his taste to run off on a mad career, with prudence and judgment on its shoulders, he is pretty sure to incur the general reprehension. But, taking the one item of architecture, if houses are to be built, is it not as well to build them beautiful? Even if beauty cost more, which it does not of necessity, would if not fully repay the outlay? We have every year numbers of buildings erected in this neighborhood which, to say the very least, will never assist in cultivating popular taste to a higher standard. Often this is because of the incapacity of the architects. Men frequently leave every thing but price and and size to the professional designer and builder, and almost as frequently they lean upon a broken reed. Architecture is the grandest of the fine arts, and the works of the artist exert more influence upon the people, and are seen much oftener, than are those of the painter or the sculptor. This being the case, one would naturally think that especial attention should be paid to the education of students and professors of architecture, but we see every day that it is not so, and pretenders are to be found in every city, who call themselves architects, but who might just as well dub themselves lawyers, doctors or priests, if competency were to be taken as a test.

MR. WM. CULLEN BRYANT, has translated a story from the Spanish expressly for the New York Ledger. This singular paper seems to cater well for all classes. It has tales of blood, thunder and forked lightning for those who love those things; it has gentle insipidity too and it has literature of first class sterling worth. There is no other periodical that we know of which contains half as much variety as this, and yet there is quite a large class of people who regard it with holy horror and make it their ideal of everything unhealthily sensational.

THE Pittsburgh and Erie Ship Canal is no nearer existence now than before. The great possibility still remains unexplored, the sources of a new river of wealth for Western Pennsylvania remain sealed, awaiting the Livingstone who is to discover them and the Moses whose divining rod shall bid them gush forth. Will Pittsburgh suffer this opportunity for turning a fertilizing stream upon the business of the town to remain unused until the enterprising energy of cities and people farther west may have rendered it too late?

THREE EMPERORS seem to be on their last legs. Napoleon, Alexander and Francis Joseph are all reported to be afflicted with diseases, which may at any moment strike them down. At any age of the world the death of an imperial ruler has been an event on which could easily be hinged the most important of revolutions, and the state of the world's politics at present is so threatening that it is no wonder that the health of three princes is so anxiously regarded. In France and Austria, the heirs apparent are youths of tender age, while in Russia the Czariwitzsch, though a man in years, is of tender intellect. Prophets of evil, who for centuries have predicted the destruction of the world, are now many of them united in foretelling terrible things for the year 1870, The present condition of affairs, though far from exemplifying the finished end of the earth, may well be regarded as extending fair promises of frightful possibilities in Europe.

A GREAT MANY original similes, bright gems of wit and brilliant epigrams, are constantly thrown upon the world in these days of newspapers, only to be lost after an ephemeral existence. Formerly, when a man coined these sharp bright things he kept them until he had enough to attract attention by their combined brilliancy, and then, submitting them to the world, won reputation and renown. Now they float about unhonored and unowned. A nameless reporter, recently, in recording the fact that a foundling had been sent to the hospital, remarked that "babies are like tooth-brushes—every one wants his own." There is many a less original comparison than that bound in morocco and treasured in great libraries.

THERE ARE some inconveniences in the English language which often occasion a great deal of trouble and yet are frequently amusing. In the case of one person repeating a story of a second person, concerning a third, owing to the incompleteness in the language, we find it almost impossible to distinguish which of the two said this and which said that. For example; A Philadelphia paper recently said that "the Cunard steamer China sailed to-day with seventy passengers, among whom are Mrs. Henry Bergh. She has $40,000 specie on freight." Mr. Richard Grant White would do greater service to the language if he would devise some good method of distinguishing pronouns, instead of tilting against things that are "being done."

GARIBALDI has written a book on "Rome in the Nineteenth Century." The name of the author and his familiarity with the subject should be sufficient to secure an army of readers for it. But, judging by the evidences produced by the summoning of the great Æcumenical Council, a subject far more interesting, and one with which Garibaldi is also familiar, is "The Nineteenth Century in Rome.

NEW RRIGHTON, PA.

The Beaver County Sabbath-School Association.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, Oct. 15, 1869.

This Association met in semi-annual convention, in the M. E. Church of New Brighton, on the 13th inst.

In the absence of the President, Mr. Coe, of Rochester, B. R. Bradford, of New Brighton, was called to the chair. Thirty minutes were spent in devotional exercises. The Secretaay being absent, Rev. L. Paine was elected Secretary pro tem. Rev. Mills delivered the address of welcome.

Dr. John Sargent, Secretary for New Brighton district, reported the statistics of six of the New Brighton Sabbath schools, aggregating 844 scholars, 87 teachers, 555 reading the Scriptures, 890 volumes in the libraries, &c. The pastors and superintendents of the following schools reported verbally their modes of teaching, condition of their schools, &c.:

New Brighton—Presbyterian, United Presbyterian, Methodist, Methodist Episcopal, and Baptist.

Beaver Falls—Methodist, and Methodist Episcopal.

Bridgewater—Methodist Episcopal and Presbyterian.

Freedom—Presbyterian.

Vanport—Methodist Episcopal.

Fallston—Union school.

The above reports were interesting and instructive to Sabbath School workers.

Adjourned to meet at two P. M.

Afternoon session opened. B. R. Bradford in the chair. Thirty minutes spent in devotion.

The Convention then went into an election of officers for the ensuing year, resulting as follows:

President, J. P. Lowrey of Beaver; Secretary, S. P. Crowther of New Brighton; Executive Committee, O. R. Coe of Rochester, J. F. Dravo and J. C. Wilson of Beaver, Rev. Dilworth of Beaver Falls, and T. P. Fleeson of New Brighton.

Revs. Crowther, Critchlow and Wallace were elected a committee to provide music for the children's meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

President Coe arrived and took the chair.

"Our difficulties, and how to meet them," was then taken up and discussed by several persons to mutual profit.

The next question on the list, "Preparation of the lesson," was taken up and discussed. Interesting.

Adjourned to meet at 7 o'clock.

Evening session opened at 7 o'clock, President Coe in the chair. Religious exercises conducted by Rev. Crowther.

Addresses and singing, alternately, was the order of the evening.

The convention was addressed by Brevet Mills, Wilson. Wallace and Brough, of Butler, showing the relation of the church to the Sabbath School, and the duty of all church members to work in the Sabbath school, in whatever capacity they can, and that we must look to the Sabbath School for efficient workers in the evangelization of the world. Miss Lepple and Miss Platte furnished the Convention with suitable music. The exercises were interesting. The house was full. Adjourned at 9 o'clock.

Thursday, October 14, 1869. Convention met at 9 o'clock. President Coe in the chair, devotional exercisses of half an hour.

The question "Should an unconverted person teach in Sabbath schools" was taken up and discussed. It was concluded that to be properly qualified, the teacher must be a Christian, but there are occasions when non-professors of religion may be profitably employed as teachers.

The next topic was the blackboard exercise. Brother Mills illustrated this.

The next question was, "Are addresses from visitors advantageous?" Not always.

"Should the Superintendent talk much?" The general opinion, no.

"Should the lesson be uniform?" Yes.

Adjourned with benediction.

Thursday afternoon, 2½ o'clock.—Convention met in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, to hold the Children's Meeting. The house was full, mostly children. The public schools were suspended and most of the pupils were in attendance.

The exercises after, the opening devotions' consisted of brief addresses and singing alternately. The meeting was interesting and we hope profitable.

The choir furnished the music.

Evening session met in the Ninth Episcopal Church. President Coe in the Chair. Devotional exercises half an hour.

Singing, "The Cross and the Crown."

On motion, W. C. Dunlap was re-elected Treasurer for the year.

A collection was lifted to defray the expenses of the Convention.

The Association resolved to raise $20, to constitute it a part of the State Association.

A. G. Gilliland was elected Secretary for New Brighton district on account of Dr. Sargent's ill health disabling him. The other district Secretaries were re-elected for the year.

The topics for the evening were taken up in order, first, "What is the pastor's place in the Sunday school?" Discussed by Messrs. Carnage, Murray, and Wallace. Result: Necessity and fitness must determine.

"Sabbath School Experience and Incidents." Discussed by Bradford, Fleeson, Styles, Critchton, Wilson and Wallace.

"Closing Words.", by Rev. Crowther.

President Coe then sang a beautiful song, entitled "Your Mission."

The Convention then sung the Doxology, and dismissed with benediction.

S. F. CROWTHER,
Secretary.

COL. FRANK L. RHOADES, of Shawneetown, Ill,, has presented to the State Geological Department a tooth of some huge animal, probably a mastodon. The tooth is eight inches long by four wide. A card attached to it reads as follows: "This tooth, with two others, and some portions of a skull and jawbone, was found on the edge of the Ohio river, in a quagmire, near Shawneetown, Ill., at extreme low water, in the month of September, 1867. Weight when found, 6 lbs. 2 oz.; weight now, 5 lbs. 12 oz. Presented to the Geological Museum of Illinois by Col. F. L. Rhoades."

—Gov. Walker, of Virginia, in a speech yesterday at the Fair grounds at Danville, said he felt nothing but pity for the opposition party in the late canvass, who were led by a set of cormorants and carpet baggers who had nothing at stake but their own selfish interests. He rejoiced that the election settled the fact that Virginia was hereafter to be ruled on principles of right and justice, and civil and political equality. What she now needs is plenty of honest, industrious and intelligent laborers, no matter from what source they come. He appealed to the young men of Virginia not to forsake the State, not to forsake the plow and fly to the large cities of the North, where vice and demoralization awaited them.

—The rumor of the death of Gen. Castello, who commanded a division of Cuban insurgents, has been confirmed. An other detachment of Spanish troops, left Havana yesterday for active service in the field.

NASHVILLE, October 15.—Cotton good: ordinary 23@23½c; low middling 23½@24. Wheat: red $1,05, amber $1,10, and white $1,20. Corn $1,15. Rye $1,00. Barley $1,25. Oats 65c. Flour $5@7 for superfine and fancy. Bacon: sides 20c, shoulders 17½c, hams 21½c. Lard 20.

MISS CRAIG, whose heart Sprague smashed all to pieces, has got $10,000 of her verdict money.

ON Sunday night last, as the schooner L. M. Chase, of Chatham, Mass., was off Minot's Ledge, a loud noise was heard by the fishermen on board, resembling the bellowing of a bull, which startled the men; but in a few moments their fright was increased on seeing their vessel, of eighty tuns burthen, suddenly lifted up in the water some six feet, and as quickly let fall again. The bellowing noise first heard was continued, when it subsided. The vessel, however, was found to have sustained no damage, and after further consideration it was ascertained that the strange commotion was caused by a finback whale. Some of these whales have recently been seen in the bay.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system, Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

THE FALL AND ITS DANGERS.

Animal as well as vegetable life is powerfully affected by the great atmospheric change that takes place in the Fall. But for the flowers, the foliage and herbs of the field there is no help. Their time has come and die they must. It is otherwise with man. For him the means of reinvigoration have been provided by skill and science. To recruit his exhausted energies and fortify himself against the disorders generated by the sudden depression of temperature and the unwholesome exhalations of Autumn, let him tone his nervous system, invigorate his digestion and give edge to his appetite with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. He may then face the morbid influences of the season fearlessly. The chilling night dews and heavy morning mists will have no power so make him shiver and burn, to affect his liver, to disorder his stomach or his bowels, to rack his joints with rheumatism, or to render any latent element of disease in his system active and dangerous. To the sufferer from general debility, whether constitutional or arising from other causes,—this potent vegetable specific is earnestly recommended. And let it be remembered that physical weakness opens the way to all maladies. Vigor is the chief desideratum of the human structure against all causes of disease, and HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be truly pronounced the safest and surest of all invigorants. It is the most genial of all vegetable tonics, and is admirably adapted to the wants and weaknesses of the more delicate sex, as well as to the ailments men.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October 13, 1869.

Money is still easy on call at New York, but more stringent in our local market, and good paper not based on ligitimate transactions is frequently rejected.

The demand for local securities is very limited, and besides bank stock transactions are light.

Gold is steady at 130¼. The market appears to be mainly sustained by parties interested in settlements of former contracts, and a complete adjustment of the gold exchange bank balances. The indications are that lower permanent quotations for gold will be made.

The stagnation in our export business has recently given rise to discussions as to what extent the present low price of gold had influenced this condition of affairs. Gold may be low, and lower than it should be according to the market value of other products, but we question whether it is not too high yet, and other articles of commerce, labor, rent, and of course property is not held far above their true value. We go even so far to say that the market values of everything must decline, and the premium on gold will also further be depressed. The producers of grain, cotton and other crops, and speculators attempted last year to mantain high prices for grain in particular, but had to seccumb. This season the crops are unprecedentedly large, and the demand for money more pressing. It will be more difficult to carry over large stocks of produce that should be marketed at once, and the quantity itself will compel the weaker holders to offer their products. They will seek a market, and if it can not be acepted, with the increased offering, the more shrewd and farseeing will precipitate matters by attempting to come on ahead of their more slow neighbors, and a depression beyond the point the article is actually worth, will be reached, and exports must go on a larger scale, forcing down exchange, and with it a lower gold premium. The idea that gold should go up for the purpose of allowing one section of the country to find a profitable market, while others suffer from inactivity, is really a novel one, and we would like to hear Adam Smith or Stewart mills views on the subject.

Government bonds are tending downwards, and every advance is rapidly followed up by large sales, partly long bonds and speculative sales.

In stocks the market is barely sustained, although there are some minor fluctuations that would indicate an improvement in the market—the fear of a stringent money market, and the unsettled condition of Wall street, prevents any material change for the present. Should gold go lower and bonds react, lower prices on the stock exchange are absolutely to follow. The only exception to this is the few really investment stocks now held, such as Fort Wayne; and the dividend paying shares of Eastern roads, as those of the Middle States. The whole drift of speculation is towards lower prices.

Business is very dull, with merely a local immediate demand for any kind of merchandise, and consequently a dull money market with high rates for discount.

NEW YORK, October 15, 1869.

Money rather firmer at 6@7 per cent. on call. The drain of currency to the South has commenced, and that from the West is expected soon. The Treasury sales of gold this week were three millions, while the bond purchases were only two millions. This depletes the city Banks of a million and a half of currency and probably has something to do with the increased demand for money to-day. Discounts dull at 10@12 per cent. Sterling quiet at 9@9¼ per cent. Gold dull and all business at 130¼, closing rates; carrying rates 3@5 per cent. The Sub-Treasurer sold one million dollars at 130@130 1 100.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October, 15 1869.

Business generally continues rather dull, but we are in hopes that an improvement is near at hand. Complaints, loud and bitter, continue to be made in regard to the railroad discrimination against Pittsburgh, and the grain, flour and many other branches of business, would be much better if it were not for this. As another instance of the disadvantage our merchants have to contend with, it is stated, and we have no reason to doubt it, that shipments can be made from Toledo to Philadelphia or New York at the same rate charged from here, notwithstanding Pittsburgh is only about one-half the distance. There is no good reason why Pittsburgh should not be able to do a good shipping business; there was a time when the shipments from here to Philadelphia and Baltimore were large, but during the past two or three years, there is scarce a small town on any of the western roads centering here, whose shipments east have not exceeded those of Pittsburgh.

APPLES—Under influence of high receipts, market is firmer but prices are not quotably higher, ranging from $1,00 to $3,00 per bbl.

ASHES—Steady but unchanged—4@4¼ for Soda, and 9 for Pearls.

BUTTER—Prime to choice Roll Butter is in steady demand, with regular sales at 35@37.

CHEESE—Is steady with regular jobbing sales at 15@18 cts—the outside figure for prime New York Goshen.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands 28½@29 for round lots, and 30@31 in a retail way.

CHESTNUTS—Sales at $8 per bushel, and drooping.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of choice eastern cultivated at $11,50@12 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples are quoted at 9@10 cts. per pound, and Peaches at 10 cts. for bright quarters, and 14c for bright halves.

EGGS—Sales of fresh packed at 24@25.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@86 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and devoid of anything new or really important. Western winter wheat flours are still being sold at $6,50@6,75 for choice. There is little or no inquiry for spring wheat flours.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged—the mills are paying $1,25 for prime Red and $1,30 for White. Oats dull and cannot be quoted above 47@48, on wharf and track, and 49@50 in store. Rye, also, is dull but unchanged, $1,00@1,05. Barley is in steady demand at $1,25@1,30. Corn is steady but unchanged at $1,00 for prime Yellow on track, and $1,05@1,07 in store.

HAY—Sales from country wagons at $15@23—mostly at $15@20.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland white lime at $2@2,25 per bbl.

LARD OIL—Extra No. 1, at $1,45@1,48 and No. 2, at $1,05@1,08.

ONIONS—Sales at $2,50@3,00 per bbl, the outside figure for choice.

POTATOES—Sales Peach Blows and Neshannocks at 50 cts per bushel. Prime Jersey Jweets $5,00 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Market steady with a continued fair jobbing demand but prices unchanged. We now quote shoulders at 17@17¼; Clear Ribbed Sides, 20½; Clear do, 21; Ribbed, 20; plain Sugar Cured Hams, 23. Lard, in tirces, 20; in half bbls, 20¾ in kegs 21. Mess Pork, $33,50.

POULTRY—Sales of chickens at 55 to 65 cents per pair, according to size.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is dull and we now quote at $4,00@4,25. Flaxseed is quoted at $2,35@2,40, No movement in Clover Seed.

SALT—Is firmer, with sales of car load lots at $1,85 per bbl.

STRAW—Sold in Allegheny market at $12 per ton.

BEAVER, PA.

A Few Passing Notes from the Town—Its Schools—Improvements—Stores, etc., etc.

DEAR GAZETT:—Having often looked over your excellent paper for news from Beaver, and not finding much, I thought a few occasional lines from an inhabitant of the place would not be amiss. Perhaps some of your readers have no idea where this beautiful town is situated. If so, let them take the cars at Pittsburgh, and they will land at the Beaver station in two hours, it being twenty-eight miles below the city, on the Ohio river. The town is beautifully surrounded by high hills, and, being on a hill, it commands a view of all the surrounding towns, and is easy of access by rail or water, from many points. It is noted for its educational advantages, having two first class seminaries and one fine public school. Any having daughters or sons to educate, would do well to visit these schools, or send for catalogues. Both Seminaries have just entered upon the first session of another year, with very flattering prospects of having full schools, but there is always room for more. Parents, consider this matter, and send your children where they will be free from the evil influences of the city. If you would take more trouble to know more about the schools you place your children in to be trained for their life work, there would not be so many hearts made sad, on account of a wicked, dissipated son, that took his first lesson when away at school, in some city or town, where so many temptations assailed him on every side. Not so, if you send that dear son to the schools in Beaver. No strong drinks are allowed to be sold in the vicinity, and scholars are watched over by men who feel their responsibility and act accordingly.

Beaver is a very old town, yet some improvements are in progress that will add much to its outward appearance. Many will remember what a desolate looking place the Diamond was, but now it is undergoing a change for the better. The Methodists are erecting a fine new church, and the Presbyterians have so improved their edifice that one would not recognize it to be the same that has stood here for years. On the corner of the Diamond, Col. Quay is erecting a large three story brick building, to be used for halls, offices and store-rooms. These are improvements that we have long felt the need of, and we hope the Diamond will undergo still greater changes.

We are not in want of millnery and fancy stores, there being three on Third street, one owned by Mrs. E. A. Beacom, one by Henry Bene, and one by A. Hanaur. The last has just started with a fine assortment of fancy goods, very cheap.

It is a difficult matter now for a lady to decide on the style of hat she wishes to wear, as there is such a variety; and when she gets one, she must hasten home or that style will change ere she reaches here. We hear so much said about the ladies' fashions changing; but where are the gentlemen's fashions—their "tights" and large flaming neckties.

Many of our stores deserve special mention, but I will mention only a few. The drug store owned by Hugo Anderson, formerly of Pittsburgh, is quite an addition to our town, and all connected with its management seem to be very clever men. The drug store owned by John Moore is a very good one, and the owner is very accommodating. We might write much about the town of Beaver, but this will suffice now. You may hear from us again. We would like to see many more copies of your excellent paper distributed throughout our town, as we claim it to be the best daily paper published in the city.

A person coming to our quiet village last week would have felt that he had made a mistake, and was in some other place than Beaver, but upon inquiry he would have been told that it was the time of the county fair, which proved to be the best held for many years. The attendance was very large. The stock, machinery, fancy and ornamental work exhibited were of the best and finest qualities, but the horse racing seemed to be the principal feature of the fair. A VIENNA paper says: "Bismarck's disease, as the French papers said some time ago, is simply delirium tremens. He can not hold a pen in the morning, and he has to take strong stimulants to overcome his nervousness. He can never make a speech in Parliament without previously taking strong doses of Cognac brandy." This is probably untrue as Bismarck has been noted for his extreme temperance principles.

A Sensible Idea About Visiting.

The French gentry are adopting the plan of inviting guests by series, to their chateaux. And each invitation sets forth the exact length of time each guest is expected to stay, as well as the day he to come. Not a bad plan either. A family may be very glad to see a friend on a given day, and to entertain that friend for a given time; and yet it might be very annoying and inconvenient to have that visitor at another time, or to have his visit prolonged. It is the unexpectedness and length of visits which vex and fret families more, than anything else. The ease with which people can now get about is producing such a rage for visiting, that hospitable families are really in danger of being worn out and rendered utterly wretched, if not actually impoverished, by the swarms of friends, who find it convenient and pleasant to make these hospitable houses their temporary homes, while engaged in their own business or pleasure. No considerate, well-bred person will ever presume to make a friend's house a stopping place, even for a day, without having first ascertained whether such a course would be convnieent and agreeable to that friend; and should never overstay the time designated, except on the most urgent invitation.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my12:151-d&F

PROPOSALS.

OFFICE OF THE CONTROLLER OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY, PA., Pittsburgh, October 11th, 1869.

NOTICE TO COAL MERCHANTS.—Sealed proposals will be received at this office until the 21st inst., inclusive, for furnishing to Allegheny county TEN THOUSAND BUSHELS OF GOOD MERCHANTABLE COAL, free from slack and dirt, to be delivered at the entrance to the Court House and Jail on Fifth avenue and Ross street, and in such quantities as the Commissioners or their agent may direct, until the whole shall have been delivered. Payments to be made in warrants drawn on the County Treasurer, when the contract shall have been completed. By direction of County Commissioners.

HENRY LAMBERT,
oc12:p69. CONTROLLER.

PROPOSALS

Will be received at the Engineer's office of the PITTSBURGH AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD COMPANY in PITTSBURGH or CUMBERLAND, until the 1st of November, 1869, inclusive, for SUPPLYING THE CROSS TIES for the entire line of about 85 miles of this road from near Connellsville to near Cumberland. The length of each cross tie will be 8 feet between square ends. Thickness 7 inches, and flattened on two opposite sides to not less than 7 inches bearing surface, out of wind and clear of bark, which will be shaved off. Kind of timber, White Oak, Rock Oak or Chestnut, sound and free from wind shake or other defects. Places of delivery, immediately on the road, and not more than half a mile apart, where the ground will permit access and room for piling, which will be done in alternate cross layers of about 100 in each pile. Proposers who cannot deliver at the intervals named may state the place at which they would deliver, and quantities at each place. The number per mile will be 2,112, and whole number about 210,000, including those for side tracks. Timber to be cut when the sap is out, and delivery to be commenced on or before January 1st, 1870, and continued until all delivered; as follows, viz: For the first 10 miles from either end of the road near Connellsville or Cumberland, on or before May 1st, 1870, for each succeeding 10 miles toward the middle of the road one month later, or on the 1st of June, July, August and September, 1870, until the whole number are delivered. Monthly estimates of Cross Ties delivered on the road will be given, four-fifths of the contract price of which will be paid, and the remaining fifth at the completion of the contract.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on application.

We have a full supply of the above Bonds on hand and for sale, and we take pleasure in recommending them as a very reliable and perfectly safe investment.

Correction.—In our returns of the elected city councilmen we inadvertently omitted the name of Mr. Montgomery Fedder of the Common branch.

Real Estate.—See advertisement of McClung & Rainbow, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, 195, 197 and 199 Centre avenue. tf.

Bank Stock at Auction.—10 shares Franklin Savings Bank will be sold on Monday evening next, at 7½ o'clock, at A. Leggate's Auction House, 159 Federal street, Allegheny.

Assault—Bernard Hogan alleged before Alderman Shore yesterday that Micheal Cook had committed an unprovoked assault and battery upon him by which he was severely abused. The officers are in search of Micheal.

To Claremont.—The following citizens were taken to the Work-house yesterday: James Martin, John Hanlon, John McLaughlin, Pat McGraw, Humphrey Desmond, John Williams, Jesse Wilson, Jno. Johnston.

Disorderly.—Humphrey Desmond acted in a disorderly manner yesterday in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, by beating his wife and creating a disturbance generally around the neighborhood. Alderman Stewart committed Humphrey to jail for thirty days, and he subsequently retired to Claremont.

A Mistake.—Gen. McClellan did not arrive in the city yesterday but will doubtless pass through as soon as convenient, if for no other reason than to look at the elegant assortment of fine trunks, valises, traveling satchels, &c., which Liebler, No, 104 Wood street, always has on hand. Other travelers might inspect the stock with advantage.

Elegant.—The stock of goods at Moorhead's, No. 81 Market street, is really an elegant sight and worth a visit to the store to inspect. A better stock has never been brought to Pittsburgh. Ladies should patronize this establishment in making their season's purchases, as they will find the assortment and prices of the most satisfactory character.

A Musical Curiosity.—The largest portable pipe organ ever brought to this city is now on exhibition at George Toerge's Music Store, No. 50 Seventh avenue. We invite the public to examine the superb instrument before it goes to its destination, as it was no sooner in the store than it was sold.

GEORGE TOERGE, only Agent.

Fall Stock.—Finest brands of tobacco, snuff, cigars and everything in that line at Megraws, No. 45 Hand street, the great emporium of the trade in the city. Dealers, wholesale or retail, will find it to their advantage to patronize this establishment. The stock is full and complete, all of the best quality and sold at the most reasonable prices.

Disorderly Baker.—Wm. Baker, formerly employed in Knox's paint shop, on Sandusky street, Allegheny, was discharged a few days ago. Yesterday he went there to settle up, when it is alleged he became very abusive toward the foreman, Mr. Edward Gatchell, who subseqnently made information against him for disorderly conduct, before Alderman Irwin. The case was, however, amicably arranged.

Absconding Boarder—Aldeman Albeitz had a case of false pretense before him yesterday in which Nicholas Adrian appeared as prosecutor and Fred Saxonhiemer defendant. The defendant was charged with obtaining from the prosecutor nine dollars and a half in boarding and cash with which he cleared out. The transaction occurred at Rochester. Saxonheimer was committed to jail for trial.

Misdemeanor.—W. J. Burns, a livery stable keeper, alleged before Alderman McMasters yesterday, that H. D. Taylor had hired a horse and buggy of him on Tuesday night, drove four or five miles out into the country and back, and in coming into the city run into a lamp post, broke the buggy down and vacated it. The damage was about twenty-five dollars. The accused was arrested and held for trial for misdemeanor.

The Keystone.—Queensware, Bristolware and all articles in that line, every style and price, may be obtained at the warehouse of the Keystone Pottery, Messrs. Kier & Co., proprietors, No. 363 Liberty street. The stock on hand is very full and complete, and no difficulty can be experienced in making a choice. As a home institution, the Keystone should be patronized.

False All Around.—Dr. J. W. Bratt, an Allegheny Dentist, alleged before Alderman Irwin yesterday, that Jane Lee had procured from him a set of false teeth by representing that the lady with whom she was employed would settle the bill. Yesterday, however, Jane cleared out at an early hour and has not been heard of since. The Alderman's police are on the lookout, and if secured she will have a chance to explain.

Refused to Pay.—Some time since John Mauer, employed in Lindsay's rolling mill, First ward, Allegheny, had his hand crushed. It was dressed by Dr. T. J. Allinder who alleges that Mauer represented that his employer would pay the bill, which was found to be false when the bill was presented, the gentleman stating he had nothing at all to do with it. Alderman Irwin had the case before him yesterday and succeeded in having it amicably settled, Mauer paying the bill.

Temperance Jollification.—Last evening a temperance jollification was held in Mozart Hall, under the authority of Morning Star Lodge of Good Templars. The hall was packed with members of the various organizations and ladies and gentlemen favorable to temperance, while some of the delegations were unable to gain admittance. Algernon Bell, Esq., presided. The exercises consisted of songs, reading, recitations, and congratulatory addresses. They were prolonged until a late hour, and were of a pleasant and interesting character.

An Old Fuss.—There is a piece of property located at the foot of Troy Hill, head of East Lane, Allegheny, which has already been the cause of extensive legislation and gives promise of still more. The latest is an information made yesterday before Alderman Mullen by John Roberts charging Charles Shafer with participating in a riot. The row was caused, it is stated, by an attempt made by Schafer to build a fence to enclose the lot, which was objected to by Reberts. Warrant issued.
